

— BARCELONA - 19:53 —

Someone who knows the city, start to finish.

A composed local stays with your group for the evening, the day or the whole weekend, so nobody has to think about how the night gets home.

Evening - 21:00

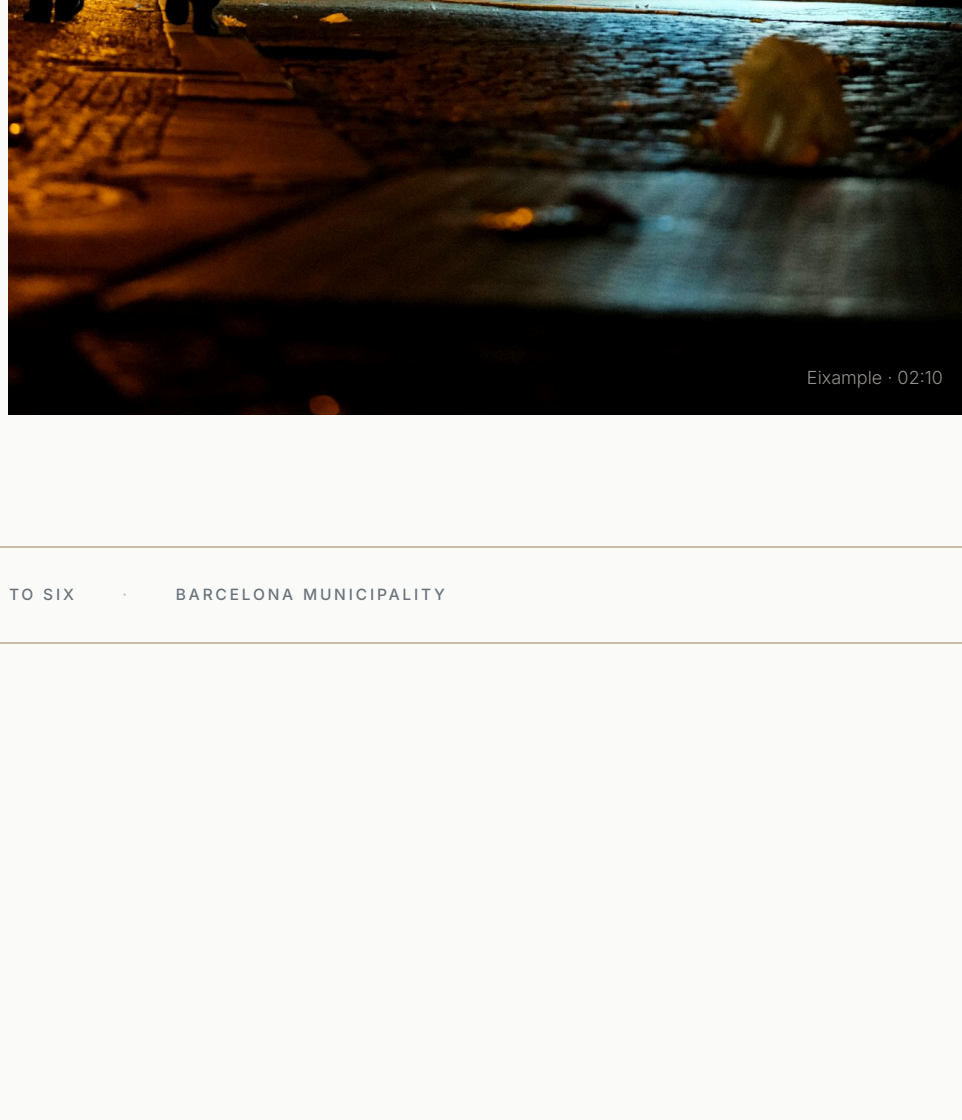

01: WHAT A KÓDA IS

Tell us when. We arrange who.

A Kóda comes from Barcelona's front-of-house world: hotel desks, restaurant floors, guiding, events. They know the rooms, the staff, and the way home.

Someone who knows the city
Which street is quicker, which table is worth the wait, and who to call when dinner runs long.

Everyone gets home
From the first meeting point to the last door. Your local stays until everyone is in.

Evening - 22:00

48 HOURS' NOTICE ONE KÓDA FOR UP TO SIX BARCELONA MUNICIPALITY

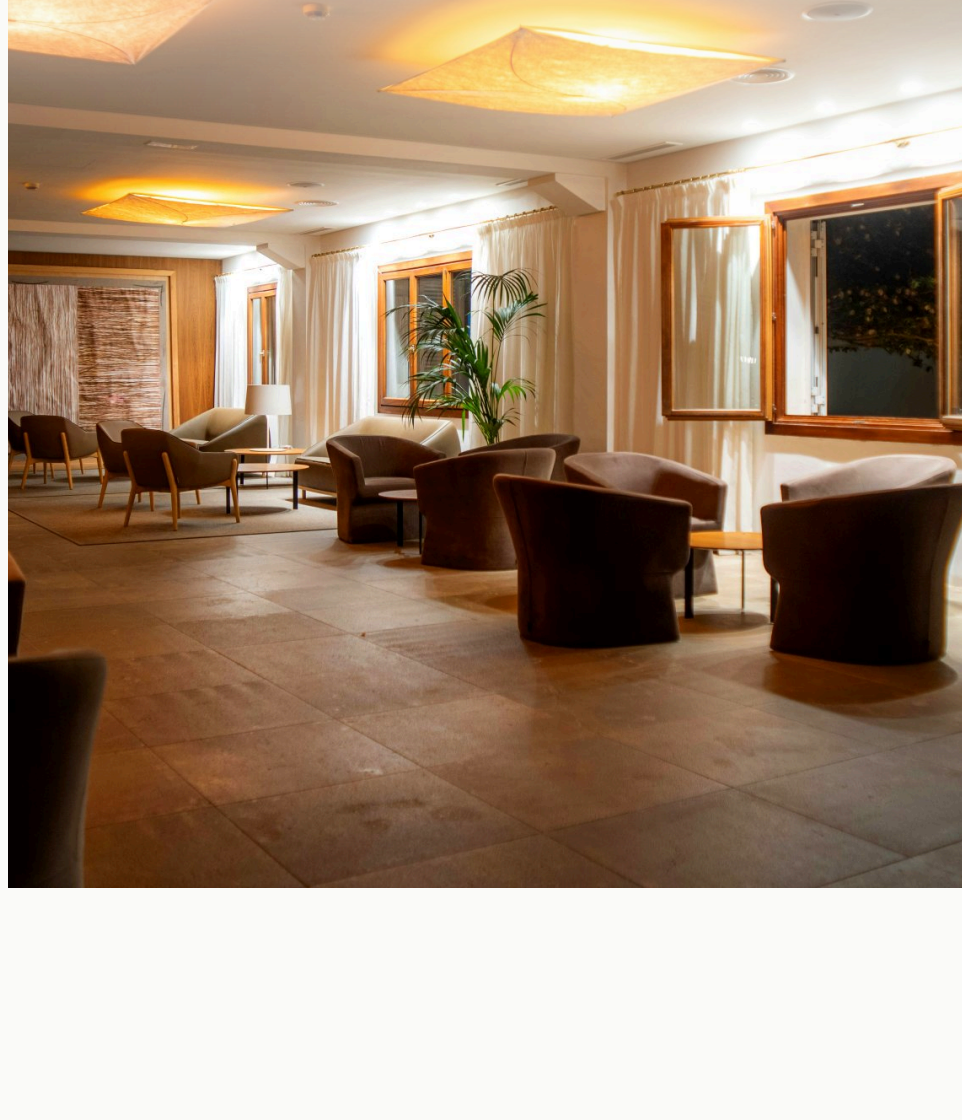

02: WHO A KÓDA IS

Chosen for judgement, not for looks.

Most come from hospitality. People who notice the table running late before you do, and who know the city after midnight as well as by day.

04: ONE EVENING, HANDLED

The night, start to finish.

Five moments from one Saturday. This is what a Kóda does without ever having to say so.

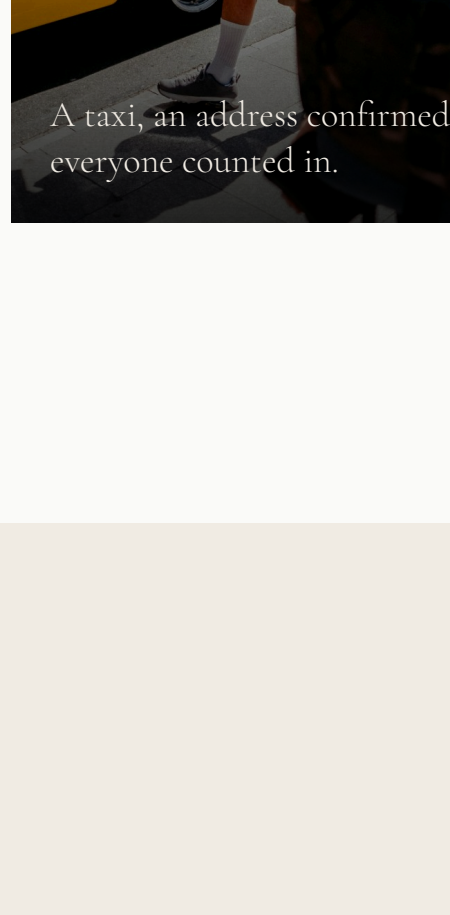

20:30
Your Kóda meets you in the hotel lobby. The table is under your name.

22:15
Dinner runs long. They've already spoken to the next place.

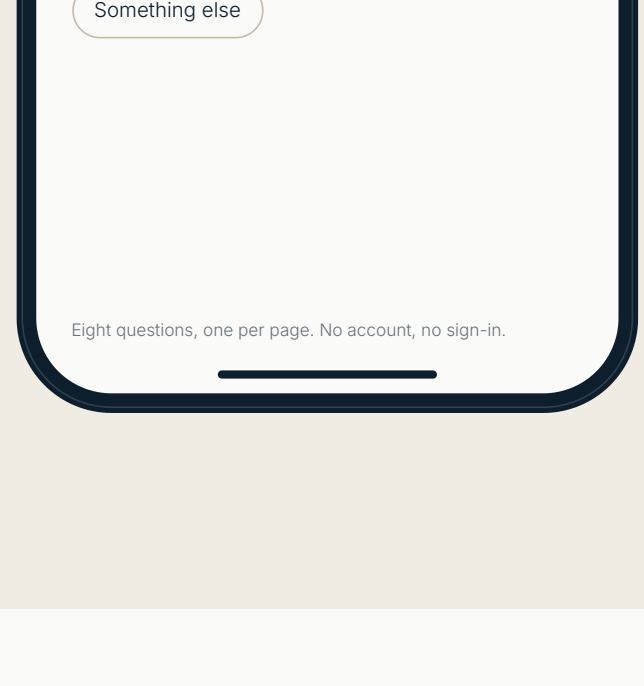

00:40
The street is unfamiliar. It doesn't feel that way.

02:10
A taxi an address confirmed, everyone counted in.

07: A NOTE FROM THE FOUNDER

I started Kóda after too many evenings where one person in the group spent the whole night quietly counting heads: the route back, the last metro, the friend who wandered off. That person deserves the dinner too.
